SCHOOL SONG

Hail, Hail, to H.H.S.!
All hail to our old Gold and Black!
Hail, Hail to H.H.S.!
Our friendship may she never lack.

Ever grateful, ever true,
Thus we raise our song anew.
Of the days we've spent with you,
All hail our old High School.

Class History

On September 14, 1944, twenty-six shy and slightly frightened young boys and girls, Deloris Bever, Fred Booe, Eleanor Brown, Glen Craig, Richard Craig, George Croft, Margaret Croft, Judith Delp, Shelby DeMumbrum, Virginia Eubank, Margaret Kay Flint, David Frazier, Jr., Tom Helmick, Carol Houser, Marsha Hutchins, Marvin Ingalsbe, Jackie Parker, Dean Redenbaugh, Lulu Belle Taylor, Loran Templeton, Robert Thomas, Tommy Wilkinson, Aaron Cornett, Shirley Mitchell, Freddie Brock, and Ralph Furr entered into the first grade. After they were welcomed by Miss Betty and had gotten over the awe of at last being in this big building, they began learning their ABC's.

During the next eight years many things were learned, such as, the difference between right and wrong. There were many students added to the class. Some of these students were Benny Haase, Donald Furr, Sidney Furr, Jane Willett, Donald Walker, Zelma Day, Beverly Furr, Louise Eaton, Betty Gibison, Martha Livingston, Gene Thomas, Bobby Ratcliff, George Hinote, Alice Freeman, Edmon Murray, Deloris Kolaiser, Richard Bowen, Joe Ellis, Charles Knee, Kathryn Beber, and Jeannette Spivey. Several of the originial twenty-six first graders and the preceding names were subtracted from the class. In October, 1950, we were saddened by the death of one of our classmates Gene Thomas, brother of Robert Thomas.

An event which will always be in our memories was the day we, as Freshmen, were initiated. After everyone had the lipstick wiped off and bruises healed, we elected class officers. Virginia Eubank was appointed president; Eleanor Brown, vice-president; Martha Livingston, secretary-treasurer; Bob Ratcliff, reporter; and Mrs. Shade, sponsor.

Taking our respective seats as Sophomores was an important step for us. At last, we were across the big aisle and could look at the Freshmen with sympathy. We received our class sweaters, which were worn practically every day that year. Class officers that year were president, Virginia Eubank; vice-president, Deloris Bever; secretary, Eleanor Brown; teasurer, Joe Ellis; reporter, Bob Ratcliff; and sponsor, Mr. Bogle.

Our Junior year was filled with important occasions. Two of the most important occasions were the times when we received our class rings and presented the Junior Play, "The Boarding House Reach." Election of class officers was held and it was decided Joe Ellis would be president; Eleanor Brown, vice-president; Virginia Eubank, secretary; Deloris Bever, treasurer; Eleanor Brown, reporter; Martha Livingston, student council member; and Miss Sutherlin as sponsor. At the end of the year the Juniors and Seniors went on a very enjoyable trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, and Detroit.

At last we, the fifteen members of the "Class of '56", entered our final and most important year of our twelve years of schooling. We selected Mrs. Belles and Mr. Delon as sponsors. Loran Templeton was elected to preside as president; Deloris Bever, vice-president; Martha Livingston, secretary; Virginia Eubank, treasurer; Eleanor Brown, reporter; and Jeannette Spivey, student council member. We were busy that year with the Senior Play, "The Able Miss Cain", the Junior and Senior trip to Washington, D.C. and New York, and the usual senior activities.

Soon we, the graduating class, will each go our separate ways into this world. May we each retain some of the fundamentals which we have learned in our twelve years of schooling at H.H.S. and consider those years as twelve of the most enjoyable of our lives.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1956

ROW 1: Martha Livingston, Jane Willett, Betty Gibison, Margaret Croft, Deloris Bever.

ROW 2: Mr. Delon, Jeannette Spivey, Eleanor Brown, Marsha Hutchins, Virginia Eubank, Mrs. Belles.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1956, do will, devise, and bequeath to the legatees herein-after mentioned, the following, to-wit;

I, Deloris Bever, will my ability to go with boys that have new cars to Paula Hutchins, provided that they are Oldsmobiles.

I, Eleanor Brown, will my ability to meet a wonderful man to anyone who is as lucky as I have been.

I, George Croft, will my ability to type to anyone who wants it.

I, Margaret Croft, will to my sister, Dorothea, the luck of never losing her dog-tag in the dark at Junior play practice, as I did.

I, Virginia Eubank, will my ability to go steady with one boy for 2 years to any girl, provided she marries him as I plan to.

I, Betty Gibison, will my seat in the assembly to Jim Croft, provided he has as much fun in it as I did.

I, Tom Helmick, will my ability to train for basketball to David Wood, provided he eats as many candy bars as I did.

I, Marsha Hutchins, will my reputation as a man-hater to Dorothea Croft, provided she doesn't dislike them any more than I.

I, Martha Livingston, will my ability to go steady to Elaine Bever, provided her boy-friend is in college her senior year.

I, Bob Ratcliff, will to Mr. Massey a case of Bardahl, provided he uses it every oil change.

I, Jeannette Spivey, will my ability to go with as many boys as I have to Joyce Rusk, that is if she finds the right one.

I, Loran Templeton, will my ability to get a date with any girl to Ronnie Colson, provided he gets more dates than I did.

I, Butch Thomas, will my government book to Eddie Bever, provided that he makes better grades than I.

I, Jane Willet, will my ability to go with a Crawfordsville boy to Judy Funk, provided she gets engaged as I did.

I, Deloris Bever, will my ability to go with Veedersburg boys to Janice Berry, provided that she goes with the right one.

I, Eleanor Brown, will my ability to play the bass horn to anyone who can do it, provided they don't practice any more than I did.

I, George Croft, will my seat by the radiator to my brother, Jim provided that he can keep it warmer than I did.

I, Margaret Croft, will to Paula Hutchins, the "thrill" of helping a boy write the Senior Class poem, provided she gets as many laughs out of it as I have.

I, Virginia Eubank, will my ability to play a baritone to Judy Funk, provided that she doesn't play sharp and flat at the same time as I did.

I, Betty Gibison, will my ability to get out of the study hall to anyone, provided they don't get caught as many times as I did.

I, Tom Helmick, will my ability to go steady with a girl from Tennessee to any boy, provided she has as much accent.

I, Marsha Hutchins, will my desk in study hall to Don Howard, provided he has enough ambition to adjust it.

I, Martha Livingston, will my ability to be cheerleader to Mildred Thomas her Junior and Senior Years, provided she enjoys it as much as I did.

I, Bob Ratcliff, will to Jim Webster the ability to go with Crawfordsville girls, provided he gets into less trouble than I did.

I, Jeannette Spivey, will typing my book tomy nephew, Ronnie S., provided that he can make as many mistakes as I did.

I, Loran Templeton, will my ability to hit trees to my cousin, Jan Hesser, provided he does it during the winter, as I did.

I, Butch Thomas, will my typewriter to Larry Myers, privided he doesn't make any more mistakes than I.

I, Jane Willet, will my front seat on the bus to Dorothea Croft, provided she keeps it warmer than I did.

In witness, whereof, I have here unto set my hand and seal to this, the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1956 of Hillsboro High School.

Class Poem

We will now introduce you to our great class,
Here's a few words about each ladd and lass.

Now take Marsha Hutchins who is simple and sweet,
We think she has done fine as editor-in-chief.

I just saw something zing through the air,
And I knew right then, Bob Ratcliff was there.

Tom Helmick, who is our basketball star,
Always takes girls in his Ford car.

We now have Martha who is so neat,
In her yell leader costume, she looks very sweet.

Betty Gibson is the girl who makes Gray's soup,
Maybe someday she'll get a guy named "Sloop".

Here is Jane Willett, who never gets cross,
And is also engaged to a guy named Jack Ross.

Butch Thomas, the boy who is quite classy,
Used to drive a car, that we all called "Shasty".

Lets take Eleanor Brown, who is always so gay,
We hope when she gets married, she won't move away.

Deloris Bever, who seems so bold,
We often see her riding in a "55" Olds.

There is Virginia Eubank, who is going steady,
We wonder when she graduates, if she will be ready.

Jeannett Spivey, who is next on our list,
Tries to tell us she has never been kissed.

Next comes George Croft, the man of our class,
He works real hard and gets it done fast.

If you think writing this poem was easy and soft,
You ought to talk to Loran Templeton and Margaret Croft.

Junior and

The Junior and Senior Trip to Niagara Falls and Canada was one of the most enjoyable events of the 1954-55 school year. At a very early hour on May 7, fourteen Juniors and eleven Seniors and our sponsors, Mrs. Belles, Miss Southerlin, Mr. Delon, the principal, and Mr. Lankford, a grade teacher, boarded the bus. Indiana and the northwestern part of Ohio were crossed. Beautiful Lake Erie was seen. In the evening we arrived in Cleveland and checked into the Hotel Olmstead. We had the evening free for our own entertainment.

On the second day, we left Cleveland and followed Lake Erie to Erie, Pennsylvania, where we enjoyed a fish dinner by the lake. Then we left for Buffalo, New York, where we went through the industrial section of the city, and Niagara, New York, where we had our first view of Niagara Falls. We registered at the Hotel Niagara. In the evening we attended the Salvation Army Church. Then the group traveled to Canada, where we saw the beautiful display of rainbow-colored lights on the Falls, and many souvenior shops were visited. Each time we entered Canada or returned to the United States, we were required to go through the custom office.

Senior Trip

Monday morning we toured Old Fort Niagara, which has flown the flags of three nations: France, England, and the United States. Again we entered Canada to view Niagara Falls. This time, by means of an elevator, we were taken to the base of the Falls. Then we walked down the boardwalk and saw the Niagara Rapids. Next we rode the cable car across the Niagara River and whirlpools. Then the group traveled to the Welland Canal, which connects Lake Erie and Lake Ontario. Then we journeyed on to Toronto, Canada and checked into Hotel Ford. The evening was free for our own entertainment. The next morning we toured Casa Loma, a French Castle, the Parliment Buildings of Ontario, and the Royal Ontario Museum. In the afternoon we left Toronto for Detroit, Michiga.. We toured the Kellogg Plant at London. After arriving in Detroit, we checked into the Hotel Tuller. The evening was free. On Thursday morning the River Rouge Ford Plant was toured. Here the class saw the assembling of a new Ford from the raw material to the finished product. The Edison Museum and Greenfield Village were visited, and we had lunch at the Willow Run Airport. After a most enjoyable trip, we arrived in Hillsboro Thursday evening, a well-traveled and happy group.

Ten Years Hence

In this day and age, there would not be any way to go to see my past class members except by jet plane. I chartered a jet for my own use. Then I could take as much time as I wanted. My first surprise was that of meeting Jack Parker as the pilot of my plane. He told me that Fords just weren't fast enough for him. Our first stopping place was Hollywood, California, where I;met two of my classmates. One was Martha Livingston, the greatest clothes designer in Hollywood. She has been presented seventy-six Oscars. She took me to see Loran Templeton who has taken over the once popular Eddie Fisher show. He had just finished making a recording.

Our next stop was Denver, Colorado, where I decided to eat my lunch. I found a beautiful restaurant and thought it would be a good place to eat. As I walked in the door, I saw Robert Thomas sitting at the cash register. He said that he had owned the restaurant for five years. As I was eating my lunch, Jane Willett, now an airline stewardess for Pan-American came in. She said she had just arrived from New York City. We talked for a while, but I knew that I had to hurry on. Jack was waiting for me at the airport and we were Chicago bound.

At Chicago's Midway Airport I saw the great Tom Helmick, the greatest basketball player in the world. He said that he had just completed a tour of the world and was going home to his family in Tennessee.

As Chicago was just a stopover for me, I got back into the jet and Jack pointed it straight toward Purdue University. When we arrived, I went to the office of the President of Purdue to see Virginia Eubank (Emerick) who has been his secretary for six years. As it was time for her to finish work for the day, she took me to her new home and I met her family. Like many of us, she married her old high school sweetheart. She invited me to stay at her home for the night.

The next morning I bid farewell and went back to the airport. This time, Jack said we would head for Niagara Falls. Here we found Betty Gibison, whe was the owner of Hotel Niagara. She said she had made the rooms more comfortable than they were when the juniors and seniors were there in 1955. She told me also that she had married the bus driver who took us over into Canada that first night we were there in 1955.

We left there and arrived in Washington, D.C., in time for lunch. After lunch I went directly to the White House where I was lucky enought to talk to Margaret Croft, the private secretary to the President of the United States. As I left her office I saw Deloris Bever coming out of the President's office. She said she had just finished showing him the large diamond she found on her safari in Africa. She said it was the largest ever found. Deloris went with me to the airport and I once again boarded Jack's jet.

Soon we arrived in the State of Virginia. There, I met George Croft at the airport. He said that he owns a large plantation. He took me to a town close by and, as we walked down the street, I saw Bob Ratcliff sitting on the front porch of his home in a rocking chair. He was rocking his five children to sleep. He told us that he worked in a pastry shop, putting holes in doughnuts. I wanted to spend the rest of the day in New York so I went back to the jet and was on my way.

I reached New York in plenty of time to see Marsha Hutchins. She is the star model for Gimble's Department Store. She told us that her weekly salary was nine hundred dollars. Marsha took me to see Jeannette Spivey, who is married to the mayor of New York City. Even with all her minks and jewels, she was still as gay and friendly as always

If you are wondering what I have done since graduating, I live in New York City, run my own beauty shop, and am happily married to my sweetheart of high school days.

Our carefree days are over, but the glow of old friendships still remains.
